What is the organization's primary exempt purpose? To educate the public about the history and impact of the American civil rights movement and other social movements to advance equality for underserved and traditionally marginalized communities in American society, as well as to provide curricula and cultural programming to educate the next generation about civil rights movements of the past, present, and future.

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.

28 The March on Washington Film Festival (MOWFF) strives to celebrate and increase awareness of the events and heroes of the Civil Rights Era and inspire renewed passion for activism. The festival leverages the broad appeal of film, music, and the arts to tell these vital stories, and attracts an audience that is diverse in age, class and ethnicity. For our 2014 festival, we added a week of events in Atlanta and New York City, and expanded our schedule in Washington, D.C., attracting over 5,000 people to 19 events.
